PROHIBITION ON ENTRY/ACCOMPANIMENT OF OUTSIDERS

It is hereby notified that no outsider shall be brought into, accompanied within, or permitted to participate in election-related activities in the College premises by any candidate or supporter, except persons specifically authorised by the competent authority for official election purposes.

For the purpose of this notice, an "outsider" means any person who is not a currently enrolled eligible student of Aryabhatta College and who is not an authorised member/official/staff/person permitted by the College or University to enter the premises for official purposes. Candidates shall be responsible for persons accompanying them.

Any candidate found violating this direction, or knowingly facilitating the entry or participation of an outsider, shall be liable for action under the applicable election rules, which may include cancellation of candidature where such consequence is prescribed, apart from disciplinary or other permissible action.
