Compliance of prerequisite for studying papers offered under VAC/SEC/GE courses

All the faculty members associated with the teaching papers of following nature:

- i. Value Added Course (VAC)
- ii. Skill Enhancement Course (SEC)
- iii. Generic Elective (GE)

are advised to refer syllabus of the paper allotted to them and ensure that the students enrolled for the paper complies with the prerequisite, if any, specified in the syllabus of respective paper under NEP.

For instance, students opting to study Vedic Mathematics – II should have studied Vedic Mathematic – I.

Students opting for Generic Elective course (2.1) offered by Commerce Department shall have passed Generic Elective course (1.1) offered by Commerce Department.

Students opting for VAC – National Cadet Corps- II shall be enrolled as NCC Cadet.

The choice of Generic Elective paper, for students of BMS and BA (Hons) Business Economics, shall be made from list of Generic Elective papers offered by the college excluding Generic Elective papers offered by BMS and BBE Department.

Administration/Students are also suggested to exercise caution in this regard and any student inadvertently included in the list shall be advised to change the option ensuring compliance of pre-requisite specified in the syllabus of the course.

This issues with the necessary approval of the Principal.
