

NIBS AND BRUSHES: Creative Writing and Fine Arts Society Aryabhata College

Convener: Mr. Binoy Bhushan Agarwal

“TOT-E-MAKAAN”

A REPORT

Nibs and Brushes, conducted Riwayaat '24, the annual fest of the society and organized “Tot-e-Makaan”, a competition of artistic hands and creative minds. Held on 15th February 2024, featuring “Desi- Indian aesthetics” as the theme for all the artists, it extended invitation to all participants from the university and eventually embraced presence of 10 participants in total, both via Google forms and on-spot registrations.

The contest commenced at 12:30 pm and concluded at 2:30 pm, giving participants a total of 2 hours to decorate their tote bags. The artistic genius was put on show through their refined visuals and aftermath, the participants got to keep their self-decorated totes. The entire process allowed participants to showcase their core talents and passions with a tinge of creativity.

The most-awaited announcements of the winners were declared in the presence of discerning and honorable judge Dr. Varsha Singh, right after the successful completion of the competition.

