Report by: Shria Aggarwal (BBE/23/72)

On 13 August, 2025 the Department of Business Economics, Aryabhata College, University of Delhi, conducted an Anti-Ragging Awareness Session with the objective of creating awareness among students about the negative consequences of ragging and the importance of maintaining a safe, respectful, and inclusive campus environment. The session covered legal provisions against ragging, its psychological and social impact, and the provisions available for students to seek help in case of any incidents. Faculty members emphasized the college's zero-tolerance policy and encouraged peer support to uphold a healthy academic atmosphere. Around 65 students and 2 faculty members attended the session, actively participating in discussions and gaining valuable insights to promote harmony within the college community.
