1. Parichay - Formal freshers (September 26, 2019)

Vanijya society organised a formal freshers welcome - "Parichay" on September 26, 2018. The motto of the event was to have fun along with familiarisation with the incoming batch of commerce students. The existing students of the commerce course organised few performances to welcome their juniors. All faculty members of commerce department also welcomed the freshers.

2. Diwali mela (November, 2018)

To celebrate the festival of lights, Vanijya- The commerce society of Aryabhata college, University of Delhi, organised a grand Diwali Mela. The society intended to sparkle the college with lights and to celebrate the auspicious moment of Diwali. The entire college was decorated with frills and lights so as to add a flair of Diwali. Various stalls were placed in the college ranging from eating stalls to gaming stalls. We had counters from few of the student entrepreneurs selling their products such as sugar cart selling pastries. We added some twist and excitement to the festive vibes by organising certain games for the students, in which they enthusiastically participated.

3. Workshop - How to crack your civil exams (October, 18)

Vanijya, a commerce society, organised a one-day workshop on “How to crack civil exams” on October, 2018. UPSC conducts the Civil Services Examination (CSE) to recruit suitable candidates for IAS, IPS, IFS, and other allied services. Lakhs of aspirants apply for the exam, yet only a few achieve the feat. So, what is that which brings about the difference? To help aspirants in their journey, a workshop was conducted on the issue. It was a very interactive session where the queries and doubts of our young aspirants was clarified.
