REPORT (2019-2020)

ACADEMIC SESSION 2019-2020

- The department of Political Science organized an Orientation Programme on 20th July 2019 of newly admitted students of B.A(Honors) Political Science.

- The Department of Political Science organized a seminar on Restoring of Democracy in Kashmir on 3rd September 2019 in Reading Hall of Aryabhata College. An eminent social worker Shri Shrinivas was the guest speaker.

- The Department of Political Science organized a seminar on the topic- 'ADR Mechanism in India: Shaping the Future of Dispute Resolution and Access to Justice' on 23rd September 2019. The speaker for the seminar was Mr. Dinesh Dayma, Assistant Professor at Faculty of Law, University of Delhi, New Delhi.

In the seminar, Mr. Dinesh focused on Nature of Indian legal system and Alternative Dispute Resolution mechanism. His contention was that today justice delivery system in India is on twisted road. At one end failure of formal law-courts resulting in backlog of cases, and on the other end ADRs fails to get much need public support, under this circumstance it is essential to rethink on the new ways out for coming generation. Therefore, it is essential in this context to understand the various forms of ADRs, their development, and mode of working of ADRs so as to assess it pros, cons and applicability to the pluralistic society of India.

➤ National Seminar-

The Department of Political Science organized a Two Days National Seminar on "Pakistan Occupied Jammu and Kashmir: History, Politics, Economics and Culture" on 25th - 26th September 2019 with support of UGC. The primary objective of the conference was to enhance understanding about the region and politics surrounding it. It encouraged scholars from the field of Academics, Law, History and Defense to come and share their views.

Pakistan occupied Jammu and Kashmir is historically, legally and culturally a part of India and due to its geo-political and geo-strategic location it attracts the attention of all neighboring states and big powers. The conference also discussed the state sponsored terrorism and fueling fundamentalism by the state of Pakistan. Separatism, secessionism and sectarian violence were the important challenges and part of discussion.
